Excerpt from Memorial Addresses on the Life and Character of James H. Kyle: Late a Senator From South Dakota, Delivered in the Senate and House of Representatives, Fifty-Seventh Congress, First Session Rev. W. H. Milburn, D. D., Chaplain to the Senate, offered the following prayer: God of our fathers. Thy servants of this Chamber are come together for the opening of the Fifty-seventh Congress with kindly feelings each for the other, and impressed with the sense of duty as their tasks are opening before them. And yet there comes to us the oppressive sense of an unspeakable loss, the departure of our friend and brother, our father and the chief of the nation, by the hand of the assassin. O Lord God, let Thy pity and grace come to all the people of this land by reason of this unspeakable calamity. And as Thy servant, the widow, sits alone and bereft, may Thy comfort and consolation come to her. And grant. O Lord, that we may duly feel the loss and sorrow attendant upon the departure from...
