Excerpt: . . . sings to society; their entire characters rising, expanding and shaping to the high and holy government of God. Let us beware then how we innovate upon those principles of moral government, which are inculcated in the Bible and by the experience of past ages. The effect must inevitably be to loosen the hold of the divine government upon the rising generation, to introduce licentious doctrines, to undermine the foundations of religion, and ultimately to bring forth upon our nation an army of infidels, radicals, revolutionists, who will neither fear God nor regard man. If we would avoid this, we must walk after the example of our pious ancestors, whose blessings we inherit. We MUST GIVE TO THE BIBLE SUPREME AUTHORITY BOTH IN OUR FAMILIES AND SCHOOLS. Nor is the power of the Bible to enlarge and ennoble, as well as to govern the mind, unworthy of notice. The human mind tends to expand to the greatness or contract to the littleness of the objects of its contemplation and pursuit; and of all the sources of magnificent objects to engage its attention, the Bible is transcendently the richest. --The birth of creation, the formation of man in the divine image, the temptation and fall, the descent and incarnation of the Son of God, the stupendous sacrifice for sin, the recovery of fallen man to lost righteousness, the kingdom of redemption rising from the ruins of the fall, the continual march of providence towards the final consummation,...
