CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 300 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. CHERYL PRAETUM is a young attorney who lands the case of a lifetime when DANIEL BLOOM retains her services to file a standard consumer bankruptcy case. Cheryl discovers Daniel signed a loan document borrowing 3,000 from a large private university to attend their school. Upon further investigation Cheryl realizes the university never gave Daniel the 3,000 he borrowed. Cheryl divulges this fact to Daniel and he decides to file suit against the school in bankruptcy court to discharge the so called student loan. The university is extremely threatened by the suit because if Daniel wins he would open the door to a retroactive and present day class action and the school would lose millions of dollars. But deals made behind closed doors between the large political organization and the judge prevents Daniel from obtaining fair treatment in court. Cheryl and Daniel are ridiculed by the bankruptcy judge and lose thereby causing Daniel to file an appeal to the federal district court, where things dont fare any better. The district court judge assigned to Daniels case used to sit on the bankruptcy court and is good friends with the lower judge. The district judge tries his hardest to stop Cheryl from pursuing Daniels suit against the MIDWEST SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING, but when his underhanded tactics of bullying dont work he sanctions Cheryl and Daniel to pay a fine of 82,000 to Midwests attorney. Cheryl and Daniel contemplate filing a further appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. Cheryl is devastated by the loss and realizes Daniel can only get the amount of justice he can afford, which amounts to nothing. At this time a friend...
