John is unlike any other Gospel. He has a clear objective in this fourth book of the New Testament - to show that Jesus is God and he does it by highlighting seven miracles to show that Jesus has power over material objects, earthly events and life or death. John also includes seven I am statements, describing Jesus as bread, a shepherd, a gate and the way to an eternal relationship with His Father. Clearly Jesus knew who He was and He wants us to know it too. John didn't need the other Gospels to help Him document His time with Jesus. Those three years clearly impacted this former fisherman's worldview. He wanted to write a Gospel that would draw people to Jesus and capture them with the truth. Because John is unique, your prayer time through John will be too, as you draw closer to the way, the truth and life. PRAYING THROUGH THE BIBLE SERIES What is God's word? Simply put, it is the word of God spoken to people long ago who transcribed that information into writing. That writing was meticulously passed down for thousands of years to speak to us today. How did God speak to people in Bible times? Audibly - God spoke directly to people who heard him with their ears or in their heart. Through situations - God spoke through the actions and events of this world. Through people - God spoke through leaders, kings and prophets who proclaimed God's purpose. Through prophecy - God spoke about future events, then those events happened. Scripture - God spoke through his written word when people read...
